

PROFESSIONAL RESUME

EDUCATION:

- Grad Dip Psychology, Deakin University, Geelong, Australia 2002
BBM Bachelor Business (Marketing), Monash University, Melbourne, Australia, 1991
Certified Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) Practitioner
Certified Time Line Therapist
Eriksonian Hypnotherapist
Associate Life Strategist
Certified Ontological Coach

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS:

- International Coach Federation
- International Association of Certified Coaches
- The RoundTable Group
- National Speaker Association
- Time Line Therapy Association

COACHING BACKGROUND:

- Began coaching and consulting to management teams in Australia 1994.
- Since moving to U.S in 2001 have worked with executives, directors, managers, business owners and individual contributors
- Have worked with executives and supervisors in the private, non-profit, and public service sectors within fields of banking, government, health care, energy, tele-communications real estate, management consulting and finance.

SELECTED CLIENT LIST:

Accenture	National Association of Women Business Owners
American Airlines	National Association of School Principals
American Business Women's Association	N.A.S.A
American Society of Administration Professionals	Project Managers Association
National Association of Secondary School Principals	Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology
British Telecom Americas	Sabre Holdings
Business & Professional Women's Association	Society of Human Resource Mangers
ExxonMobil Corporation	Southern Methodist University
Friedman Billings Ramsey Group	Verizon
Merrill-Lynch	Valero Oil

MANAGERIAL AND EXECUTIVE EXPERIENCE:

Principal, Margie Warrell International, LLC Washington DC

Coaches managers and leaders in developing their communication skills and leadership effectiveness
Intervention coaching for high potential employees on specific performance related issues
Designs and delivers workshops, seminars and training programs on communication, developing individual leadership style, team and individual effectiveness and work/life balance.

Margie's articles have appeared in many magazines and columns. She is also the author of three books including the best selling Find Your Courage: 12 Acts for Becoming Fearless in Work and in Life (McGraw-Hill)
Media guest and columnist quoted in newspapers from The London Times to Dallas Morning News.

Client Services Manager, The Independent Group, Papua New Guinea

Managed client relationships of largest marketing services company in PNG with key corporate clients including Coca Cola and Mobil Oil. Involved in design and implementation of marketing programs, advertising campaigns and market research projects, managing team of people working in remote areas around the country.

Marketing Coordinator, KPMG Melbourne Australia

Responsible for design and management of key client relationship building programs across various industries and government

Marketing BP Oil, Melbourne Australia

Worked in various departments within the organization in a variety of retail and commercial marketing roles.

Consultant, Adventure Travel Industry

Worked with management teams of several leading Australian adventure travel companies (Intrepid Travel and Sundowners to name two) in strategy development and co-coordinating their marketing efforts.

Lecturer, Southern Methodist University

Designed and ran several programs with SMU on communication effectiveness, life design and leadership development

Adventure Traveler, The World.

Travelled to over 60 countries including travelling independently through much of the Middle East, India, West Africa and South America. Since getting married in 1993 have lived in 13 homes in 5 states in three countries and had four children along the way!

GENERAL BIO:

Margie Warrell is an Executive & Life Coach, Speaker and Author who has is recognized internationally as an expert on living and leading with courage.

Margie has been quoted in the London Telegraph and other magazines and newspapers both in the U.S. and around the world. A member Cambridge Who's Who Executive and Professional Registry recently recognized her as a leader in her field internationally She is also a syndicated columnist with Women's Lifestyle Magazine and in 2006 co-authored 101 Ways to Improve Your Life with Jack Canfield, John Gray and Richard Carlson and other leading success experts. Her second book Find Your Courage! (McGraw-Hill) was released in summer 2008 (www.findyourcourage.com) to become an Amazon Best Seller (mind-body-health) and finalist in the USA Best Book Awards. In 2009 Margie released her third book Discover Your Inner Strengths which she contributed to with Stephen. R. Covey and Ken Blanchard. Margie is a sought after speaker and media guest being interviewed on numerous national radio and television programs including NBC's Today Show.

As a coach, Margie works primarily with executives from mid management to senior leadership positions. As a mother of four, she has special interest and expertise in helping professional women develop their unique leadership ability and find the courage to pursue the goals that inspire them – personally and professionally - with greater success, fulfillment and balance! She also works with individuals and teams within organizations to enhance communication, grow trust, strengthen leadership and develop individual potential. Margie is a member of The Roundtable Group, an expert services firm of top academic and industry experts.

Margie regularly runs workshops and does keynote presentation to audiences across the United States in Fortune 500 companies, national associations and professional services organizations.

Having relocated to the U.S. in October 2001, Margie now lives in Mclean Virginia with her Australian husband Andrew and their four children.