ABOUT DR. MARGIE WARRELL

A global authority on building courage to think, decide and lead with conviction.

Dr. Margie Warrell helps leaders close the courage gap: the distance between what they're capable of and what fear keeps them from doing. A former Senior Partner in Korn Ferry's Board & CEO Succession practice with a PhD in human development, she bridges science and soul, drawing on a global background in business, psychology and executive coaching, along with her diverse life experience, to grow our capacity to develop inner mastery for outer impact.

Trusted by senior leaders from NASA to Nike, she serves as faculty for Google's School for Leaders and Duke Corporate Education, is a strategic thought partner in developing Google's Courage Lab, and has spoken on stages in over 30 countries.

Her own path is proof of the choices she champions: raised on a dairy farm in rural Australia and the first in her family to attend university, she built a career across three continents, a body of work spanning six books, and a capacity to transform adversity — including surviving an armed robbery at gunpoint and profound family loss — into growth, purpose and impact. She has traversed some of the most remote places on earth, and counts summiting Mt. Kilimanjaro with her four teenagers among her braver family decisions.

"A bullseye on a critical subject."
